The S-nate school amendment to the national Constitution was lost during the closing hours of the seasion of Congress.

The m-jority in its favor did not reach the required two thirds. The vote was the required two-thirds. The vote was yeas, 28; nays, 16. There was an entire be employed. The House amendment contained the clause: "This article shall not vest, entarge or disminish legislative power in Congress." The Senate amendment contained a section declaring that "Congress shall have power by appropriate legislation to provide for the prevention and punishment of violations of this article." The subject goes over therefore, to the next assion, for it is not suppressable that it will be droven?
